

PET-FRIENDLY CITIES:

WELCOMING TWO- AND FOUR-LEGGED FRIENDS

The BETTER CITIES FOR PETS™ program is committed to helping cities become more pet-friendly through tools, resources and its BETTER CITY FOR PETS™ certification

Here's why pet-friendliness matters*:

82%

of pet owners say having a pet positively impacts their lives.

64%

said they feel more relaxed and happy with a pet.

77%

would like to see more pet-friendly housing.

72%

said pet-friendliness would affect their decision to move to a new neighborhood or building.

61%

are more likely to stay longer at a bar, café or restaurant if they can have their pet with them.

67%

are more likely to spend money at businesses that welcome pets.

56%

believe having more pet-friendly green space would positively impact their communities.

70%

say they interact with other pet owners at a local pet-friendly green space at least weekly.

The BETTER CITIES FOR PETS™ program works with local government, businesses and non-profits to help communities make our four-legged friends more welcome. Through the new BETTER CITY FOR PETS™ certification, Mars Petcare is certifying cities across North America, recognizing communities that prioritize pet-friendliness.

For the list of the first 25 cities that received the BETTER CITY FOR PETS™ certification, and to learn more, visit BetterCitiesForPets.com.
